

ADULT APPLICANTS

Monmouth University endeavors to support lifelong learning by providing services and programs—degree and nondegree, credit and noncredit—that enable nontraditional students to meet their varied educational needs and goals.

Program 65 affords opportunity for persons 65 years of age or older who meet admission criteria to enroll for study at Monmouth University at reduced tuition. Admission requirements include the designated nonrefundable application fee and proof of age as well as all application requirements. Enrollment is on a space-available basis. Those interested in learning more about Program 65 may contact the Office of Undergraduate or Graduate Admission.
